HOW Congress Tries to Dodge

Great Heat of Summer in Washington Will Be

Described in an Illustrated Article in To-

SUNDAY TRIBUNE

Two Men and Dog Rescued from Overturned Sailboat.

DIES AS HUSBAND COMES

TROOPS BACK FROM TEXAS Artillery Regiment Chipper After Long "Hikes.

can be sent for them.

THIEF'S COLD COMFORT

Limit Awaits Man Who Caused

Colonel Haire's Indictment.

street subway station platform.

your parole and you must pay the pen-

Both Divorced.

Philadelphia, June 25.-Mrs. Grace Gebble

W. Heyward Drayton, 3d, were married to-day in Chester, in the presence of a few day," replied Fess.

placed on probation.

He Had Been Taking Part

morrow's

GAMBLERS' WALL CUT

Find a Barrier of Brick.

JEERED BY LARGE CROWD

West 44th Street House, and Seize Tables and Other

PRESIDENT CONVINCED RECIPROCITY WILL PASS

senate Situation and Adverse Predictions Not Worrying Him Greatly.

SPEAKS IN PROVIDENCE

Parties to Insure Success-Sees Fall River's Great Cotton Mills

President, while many thous bands in Fall River cheered.

Welcomed in Fatt River.

It was mid-afternoon when the Pres-Severnor Foss of Massachusetts was at regular duty. the wharf to greet him. Attorney Genmal Wickersham and Senators W. Murnied him on the trip from New York. A long motor trip through the city took him past nearly all of the 104 cotten mills in Fall River and through streets lined with people, one-third of gave him an opportunity in a brief adtress in South Park to advocate reciprecity and to acknowledge the sympathy for the movement shown by Governor Fess. The speech beneath the trees in South Park was brief, and two hours after he had landed Mr. Taft was again on the Mayflower, steaming down Mount Hope Bay. The sun was setting when the Mayflower dropped anchor off Squanernor Potnier of Rhode Island. According to the police the rooms have been raided several times, and two weeks after the occurrence, but he says she related to send Mrs. Patrolman Brennecke tried to send Mrs. Senate and political affairs with Mr. Which he pleaded gullty and for which he was placed on probation last March. the Mayflower from Providence at 10:30 FALLS FIVE STORIES; SAVED Man Holds Out Arms for Boy and impose sentence?" asked Judge Rosalsky.

Is Knocked Down. As Joseph Gambroni, eight years old. fell from the fire escape of his home, on last night, a man rushed along the street want to tell you now that when I sentence you it will be for the limit of With his arms spread out and tried to eleven months and twenty-nine days and catch the boy. Joseph fell on the man's $500 fine, you to serve one day for every full was broken, and he struggled to get dollar of the fine unpaid." to his feet. The man lay on the side- day," said Bass.

Sent in an ambulance call, but before fine will be remitted. You have broken ber 4, at 9 p. m. We hung about mak-Dr. Eberle arrived from the Gouveneur Hospital, the man had regained con-Sciousness. He said he was Victoria Sakanto, a baker of No. 40 Monroe street, ment and acquitted. Harold W. Trip-and when he was told that Sabanto had W. H. DRAYTON, 3D, WEDS ARTIST place, where we arrived at 7 m. m. on the same away he found to his first broken his left leg, but said his condi-

His Bride Mrs. Grace G. Wiederseim-ATHLETE DIES IN POORHOUSE

John Linton, Once Member of Cornell Crew and Eleven, Expires at Omaha.

My fifteen years ago, died in the county will go abroad Porhouse in Omaha to-day from tuber- The former Mrs. W. Heyward Drayton. Culesis He drifted into Omaha several Ed. Miss Phoche S. Voorhees, daughter of Dears ago, and when tuberculosis attacked Theodore Voorhees, vice-president of the Min he was sent to the poorhouse, where Rending RailFond, got a divorce from her became known that the divorce sought by the is said to have a brother who is an extensive manufacturer. He is supposed to have a number of wealthy relatives in Mr. Drayton is the New York manager of a Philadelphia banking house.

became known that the divorce sought by cape, and headed for the whaling station. New Island, at West Falkland, if your compliant is tablesport Angostura.

Continued on second page.

TWO MEN IN A BOAT SAIL 22,000 MILES

English Grit and Spartan Courage Bring 37-Foot Yawl Here from West Australia.

PANDORA SLIPS BY DR. DOTY

Expects Enough Votes from Both YALE OARSMEN IN PERIL Bringing No Evil, She Will Stay a Month, then Sail for London and Australia-Crew Describe the Voyage.

the forts in the Eastern and Southern artillery districts of New York, returned around the world in a sailboat of ident came ashore from the Mayflower. Wadsworth, Hamilton and Hancock for get back to Australia, our starting point, coast artillery troops to be withdrawn unaccompanied, a 15-foot boat from the sonal charge of the pursuit of Hall. my Crane, of Massachusetts; Frank B. from the manœuvre grounds near Gal- Piræus up the Mediterranean and back, Francegee, of Connecticut, and Henry veston. There are still nine companies a distance of 1.500 miles. I had friends F. Lippitt, of Rhode Island, accompa- of coast artillery troops at Galveston, along the coast and made many visits. They will be transferred to the artillery I have always had the idea of making Fuse Blows Out on Westchester station house and identified the body. districts of the Chesapeake and the forts this round the world trip in a small in the Guif as soon as the transports packet, and when at Bunbury I chanced to meet Captain Blythe. He had the All of the troops that arrived here same notion. In fact, the Pandora had whom were French-Canadians. This were in good health and showed none of just been delivered to him from the the effects of the long "hikes" which builders, and he invited me to become his they took part in during the Texas partner for the world voyage."

The tawny Spartan looked at his logbook merely for verification of dates, the greater part of which he had ready on the tip of his tongue.

"We had some hard times weather, and once our vessel turned Henry M. Bass, alias John Rodgers, turtle, describing a circle. She went over alias William Kirk, the pickpocket who to port in a gale and righted herself again, this time to be welcomed by Gov- caused the indictment of Colonel Robert coming up to starboard. All fittings and J. Haire, the veteran criminal lawyer, on movable objects on the floor were piled a charge of attempted subornation of up, like ourselves, on the roof of the sett Bay leisurely, leaving Sea Gate last perjury last winter, was arraigned in but she righted herself, how I cannot light, and the President had plenty of General Sessions yesterday for sentence

Bass, who had promised to leave New | The Greek sallorman then told how he York and reform, was caught extracting and Captain Blythe had left Bunbury, a $10 bill from the pocket of Edward West Australia, on May 3, and sketched H. Brownell a few days ago on the 72d briefly the journey of the wee Pandora. "We left Bunbury for Melbourne, and

"What have you got to say before I got to that port on May 29. After overhauling our vessel we got away on July "I'd like a delay until next Wednes. 10 for 17dney, arriving there on July 16 at 11 a. m. We put Sydney behind us "You can have until next winter if you o. August 17 at 9:30 a. m. and headed wish it," replied Judge Rosalsky, "but I for Auckland, N. Z., and on this run we Helpless for Three Days.

"A heavy gale from the southwest got us and shattered our port bulwark. We "I still would like a delay until Wednes- put out a sea anchor, and this was carried away, and just after it went a great

ing repairs until October 2, when, at 3 Colonel Haire was tried on the indict- p. m., we started for Pitcairn Island, and then walked away, apparently unin-pett, who was indicted on the same on November 18, and remained there for to the enstward, was our next stopping > December 12." It was here that the Spartan's mind went back to Greece, and he compared the gigantic statuary of Easter Island height and weighed at least ten tons. Granda, June 23.—John Linton, an oars- Drayton left here for New York on a short But, of course, they were nothing in had written, in a trembling hand: "Tired beauty or symmetry compared with the man and football player at Cornell Univer- wedding trip. Later in the summer they beauty or symmetry compared with the and worn out."

Falklands. On January 16, 1911, at 3 for Night." Reading Railroad, got a divorce from her husband on May 22. A month earlier it husband on May 22. A month earlier it husband on May 22. A month earlier it husband on May 25. A month earlier it husband on May 25. A month earlier it husband on May 26. A month earlier it husband on May 27. A month earlier it husband on May 28. A month earlier it husband on May 28. A month earlier it husband on May 29. A month ea husband on May 22. A month earlier it husband on May 22. A month earlier it keeping about three miles south of the married to Miss Ethel Taber, a niece of the said.

THE YAWL PANDORA AND ITS CREW OF TWO.

Thumped Fresh Man Who Spoke Americans at Queenstown Aid Arrest Five Men in Rooms in pesterday on the transport Klipatrick. Sort, and after making 22.000 miles suc-They were assigned to Forts Totten, cessfully we believe we will be able to until Hall, in prison for highway robbery, broke his parole.

PANIC FOLLOWS FIREWORKS

Car-Mother and Baby Hurt. A fuse blew out on a Westchester car last night: there was a flash of flame. Fires at Cat Killing Bird, and trampled by passengers of either sex in Hackensack, N. J., June 23.—Her love their efforts to get out.

street and Third avenue. Then an am- she fired from a revolver at a cat that bulance was called, and panic-stricken was killing a robin on her lawn came men and women found time to bemoan near killing three persons. One bullet their folly and their injuries.

158th street, and her three-year-old close to the head of a person sitting at offered no resistance and were led daughter. Etta, were pushed into the the dining room table. Two other bullets street. She fell on the baby, and both whistled past the heads of two boys who tables, dice sets and a quantity of poker meter, were bruised and cut.

William Davis, who attended her at the under such conditions. Alexander avenue station and took her home in his automobile.

Day of Triumph for American Horses at Olympic Show. London, June 23.-Judge Moore had

His Lord Seaton and Lady Seaton captured Horse Show. The trophy was offered by to-morrow file with the United States to-morrow file with the United S Horse Show. The trophy was offered by pairs of over 15 hands, which had previously taken a first or second prize. He the effect being given to-day tandems not exceeding 15 hands. Patrolman Fries, who was attracted by the screams of women and children, by the screams of women and children, till Wednesday, "that not a dollar of that the federal prison is a place for until the wind died out.

"We arrived at Ancillar of the things the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the the dollar of the things the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the the dollar of the things the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the the dollar of the things the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the dollar of the things the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the Brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the brussels Cup, with the added to his string of viewing the brussels Cup, with the added to his string o Menella and Phyllis, and the International that the federal prison is a place for Menella and Phyllis, with Lord Seaton and Cup, for tandems, with Lord Seaton and bard labor convicts, and that Merse should, o'clock yesterday two Brazilian monkeys, and Worn Out."

Seattle, Wash. June 23.—Captain David H. Jarvis, formerly of the revenue gold medal from Congress for a heroic rescue of 275 arctic whalers, and who mem with the marble masterpieces of Athens.
"These islanders," he said, "cut the Morgan and Guggenheim enterprises in Morgan and Guggenheim enterprises in morrow morning at 1 o'clock. Wiederseim, the illustrator of children, and biggest statuary in the world. Some of Alaska, shot and killed himself to-day their figures exceeded twenty-five feet in in a room at the Seattle Athletic Club.

BURIED UNDER $9,000,000 IN GOLD.

BURIED UNDER $9,000,000 IN GOLD.

Mrs. Jennie Bonahur, who lives on the monkeys had been stolen. They were third floor of the house, told the deter-On an envelope found on his desk he on an envelope found on his desk he on an envelope found on his desk he on a man whose the one of the house, told the determination of the house, told the house, told the house of the hou

> He had been reading a book of Kip-The Pandora made a short visit at ling's stories, and had laid down the sacks, toppled over in one of the money are harmless. There is no danger, Dr. 4 o'clock. Easter Island and then set sail for the volume opened at "The City of Dread- vanits and overwhelmed Williams, who Adams said, of their conveying the dis-

> > GRAND CANYON AND YELLOWSTONE.

HOEBOX WAS HIS WEAPON BLUEJACKETS FIGHT FIRE

BOY SLAPPED A

He Dodged Its Heels and

ordinary workingmen, sending them cut serves from the Stagg street police stawhen Dr. Frazer arrived the boy was the Hotel Royal: It was reported at first As there had been some criticism of dead. His face had been so badly bruised that several hundred men had congre-This is the first provisional regiment of "When I was sixteen years old I sailed. Governor West's scheme, he took per- as to be unrecognizable. Toward evening gated in the alleged gambling rooms and Wolf. the boy's parents became alarmed at his had made their escape before the police | "That man there," cried the girl, pointfailure to return from school and on had gained an entrance.

WOMAN'S AIM AS USUAL easily and the raiders ascended to the Mrs. Appel still remained unconscious, Hackensack, N. J., June 20. - rier juve for robins nearly got Mrs. Antoinette Walsh sent several patrolmen for axes a few minutes and told her story. The momentum acquired carried the Perkins, an elderly widow, into grave and crowbars. car a block, and it stopped at 142d trouble to-day, for the three bullets that went through the wall of Wallace Bur-Mrs. Anna Gottman, of No. 727 East ham's house, in Maple street, and passed gambling paraphernalia. The five men were passing the Perkins home.

Other passengers with minor injuries | Police Chief Dunn tried for about an

MOORE WINS FOUR CUPS Habeas Corpus Petition To Be windows of the Hotel Royal. Filed at Atlanta To-day.

the federal prison, is making another effort to secure his liberty, or, failing in robbed in gambling establishments about mother's room. I was powerless to help, that, to have his term reduced to ten years, the city, and who described himself as however, and again swooned." Reuben Arnold and Lamar Hill will a resident of Paterson, N. J.

viously taken a first or second prize. He also captured the German Cup, open to that Morse was convicted on a misde-To-night he added to his string of vic- meanor, which is not punishable by im-Cup, for tandems, with Lord Seaton and Lady Seaton. In addition he captured the third prize in the latter event, with Marquise and Lady Auckland.

CAFTAIN D. H. JARVIS SUICIDE

CAFTAIN D

dred and fifty homing pigeons which are cage on Thursday night from the labor- the floor. It was empty and looked as Puffalo Federation of Racing Pigeon Clubs the superintendent, Dr. Robert Adams, crick Appel, jr., a brother of the young arrived here to-day, coming from club members in Jamestown, Rochester, Bur- reported their disappearance to the po- woman, said it had contained letters also and Syracuse. They will be released lice of the East 22d street station yes- written to her. No trace of these letters was wheeling a truck.

Personally conducted four covering Grand Canyon of Arizona, California, Yellowstone Park and Colorado Special train Personal Park and Colorado. Special train, Pennsylvania Railroad, August 2 to 26. Consult C. Studds, D. P. A., 282 Fifth ave., New York, —Advt.

Rock Island Lines' de luxe "Rocky Mountaineer" morning bottle, supposedly containing medicine.

According to Frederick, his sister mar-terday.

WOMEN DRUGGED AND APARTMENT ROBBED Alleged Gas Man Gags Them, Places Them in Bed and Goes About Work.

BODIES FOUND BY CHILD

Mother and Daughter Victims of Poison, Latter in Hysteria Giving Description of Assailant to Detectives.

BY POLICE IN A RAID Detectives Force Door, Only to

The house in which the raid was made young woman down on the bed.

"Take that man away; he's following "What man?" demanded Patrolman ing to one corner of the room. She then learning that a boy had been killed by Inspector Walsh and Lieutenant Jones described his appearance, alternately an automobile the father went to the were followed by scores of persons as laughing and crying. In the middle of they entered the vestibule of the build- another outpurst she collapsed and fell ing. The vestibule door was opened back on the bed.

second floor. A door which the raiders and all the efforts of the physician to thought led into the alleged gambling bring her around were fruitless. After then a loud report, and women, screaming with terror, were knocked down and Bullets Graze Three Persons. rooms was forced open and they were both women had been taken to the hos-

> "My mother and I were alone in the When they returned to the building apartment," she said, "and I was in the with the tools in their hands they were kitchen. Florence had just come from hissed at and jeered. After forty-five school, and I had sent her around to minutes of hard work the wall was Third avenue to get some note paper. pierced and the police entered the rooms. Mother was lying down in the bedroom. which they say were fully equipped with Suddenly I heard a knock at the half door, and when I opened it a tall man came in. He said he was from the gas quietly out to a patrol wagon. Several company's office and wanted to read the

"He asked me to bring him a chair so that he could read the index, and when he stepped down off it he grabbed me by the arm and tried to throw me to the floor. I struggled with him as best I could, but he was very powerful, and brought me to my knees. Then he sud-As the raiding party left the build-MOVE TO FREE C. W. MORSE ing with five men in their custody, they denly pulled a bottle from his pocket, were cheered by many persons in the pulled out the cork and forced the contents down my recat. As I fell he struck me a brutal blow on the chin, and It was learned that evidence relative to the alleged gambling rooms was ob- I knew nothing more. Atlanta, June 23.—Charles W. Morse, who is now serving a fifteen year sentence in who had complained frequently at Po-

> Reports that the two women had been murdered in their home spread rapidly around the neighborhood, and crowds of curious and frightened persons began to gather on the street and block the stairways. It was necessary to call out the Scarlet Fever Germs, at Large. reserves from the East 126th street sta-

Willard Parker Hospital, an institution put to work to unravel the mystery concerning the identity of the man. They discovered that the apartment had been systematically ransacked. Contents of With a dozen other monkeys, the two were kept in a special menagerie at the room. On the bed near the women the on November 18, and remained there to:
three days. Easter Island, 1,100 miles Man Who Rescued 275 Whalers "Tired state leading the specific for experimental purposes, and detectives found a brown glass bottle."

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) were in charge of William Irving, a without a label and empty.

Lexington, Ky., June 2: The two hunkeeper. While being returned to their An opened metal box was found on compete for the prizes offered by the atory the two monkeys disappeared, and though it had been forced open. Fredwas found.

Dr. Adams said in his opinion the Mrs. Jennie Bonahur, who lives on the under D.000,000 in gold, Wadsworth S. Will- to this time, Dr. Adams said, they had description tailled exactly with that of Mint, was so badly injured yesterday that shown no signs of the disease. The two the man who had attacked the Appels, his recovery is doubtful. The gold, in monkeys weigh about three pounds and as she was walking down the steps about ease to human beings, even if they have wrote a letter to one of the daily papers

Two Simians, Inoculated with Between midnight Thursday and 6 tion to drive them away.

Rooms Systematically Ransacked. Detectives Curtayne and Brenner were well developed cases of scarlet fever. about a year ago saying an attempt had been made to poison her by a man Only Two Nights New York to Colorado, who had called at her home and left a chips were taken to the police station.